Helen Heibert

Workshop: "Working with High Shrinkage Abaca"
at Town Square October 6

The Paper Fest opening reception was held on Friday, October 5 and Helen Heibert's workshop took place the next morning. Paper Fest exhibitors and community members took the class titled, "Working With High Shrinkage Abaca." Helen runs a professional papermaking studio in the Colorado Rocky Mountains. She creates artist's books, unique handmade papers and develops and records online classes.

Frank Juarez led the afternoon workshop titled, "Professional Development for Artists." Frank lives in Sheboygan, WI and is a gallery director, art educator, artist, author, presenter and arts advocate.

Thank you to our Midwest Paper Fest judges: Rafael Salas, Associate Professor of Art at Ripon College; Helen Heibert, paper artist, author, film producer; Travis Nygard, Associate Professor of Art & Director of the Caestecker Gallery at Ripon College.
